To Whom It May Concern:

We are delighted to provide a recommendation for McNeff Engineering & Consulting Corporation. We have been associated with Michael McNeff for over four years, and were among one of his first clients when he started his engineering and consulting company. We consider McNeff Engineering to be a premier structural engineering company, and a valuable part of our design and construction development team.

McNeff Engineering has always met deadlines with high-quality, efficient and cost-effective designs. We look forward to a long and mutually beneficial association with McNeff Engineering.

We recommend the firm without any reservations.

Sincerely,

Chevis Hosea
Vice President of Development
